General notes

Adding a particular

Place a cross in the 'add' box in the left hand column when adding a new particular to your register of interests.

Removing a particular

Place a cross in the 'remove' box in the left hand column when removing a particular from your register of interests.

If there is insufficient space on this form for all of the details you are required to give you may attach additional papers for that purpose. You must sign and date each additional paper.

When completing this form, insert the words 'not applicable', where appropriate.

The completed form (with an envelope marked 'confidential') is to be sent, within 30 days of commencement of duty or any changes of circumstances to the chief executive officer of your local government.

Related persons

A person related to a councillor need not include information regarding an interest held jointly or in common with the councillor which is already included in the councillor's register of interests.

Section notes

The header of each field includes a reference in italics to the relevant section in Schedule 5 of the Local Government Regulation 2012.

The following notes may assist you with completing your register of interests.

Important note

Failure to complete or update a register of interests can give rise to an offence, with associated penalties to a maximum of 85 penalty units, or 100 penalty units if a councillor intentionally fails to complete or update their register of interest, and/or disqualification from holding office as a councillor for four years.

If you are unsure of your obligations with respect to registers of interest, it is strongly recommended that you seek independent professional advice to clarify your understanding of your obligations.

Further information

When completing this form, you should refer to the Local Government Act 2009 (the Act) and the Local Government Regulation 2012 (the Regulation) relating to the disclosure and registration of interests for a councillor and their related persons.

See www.legislation.qld.gov.au for a copy of the Regulation and the Act.

General notes

Adding a particular

Place a cross in the 'add' box in the left hand column when adding a new particular to your register of interests.

Removing a particular

Place a cross in the 'remove' box in the left hand column when removing a particular from your register of interests.

If there is insufficient space on this form for all of the details you are required to give you may attach additional papers for that purpose. You must sign and date each additional paper.

When completing this form, insert the words 'not applicable', where appropriate.

The completed form (with an envelope marked 'confidential') is to be sent, within 30 days of commencement of duty or any changes of circumstances to the chief executive officer of your local government.

Related persons

A person related to a councillor need not include information regarding an interest held jointly or in common with the councillor which is already included in the councillor's register of interests.

Section notes

The header of each field includes a reference in italics to the relevant section in Schedule 5 of the Local Government Regulation 2012.

The following notes may assist you with completing your register of interests.

Important note

Failure to complete or update a register of interests can give rise to an offence, with associated penalties to a maximum of 85 penalty units, or 100 penalty units if a councillor intentionally fails to complete or update their register of interest, and/or disqualification from holding office as a councillor for four years.

If you are unsure of your obligations with respect to registers of interest, it is strongly recommended that you seek independent professional advice to clarify your understanding of your obligations.
