Information Privacy and Right to Information

The information you provide in your grant application will be used by the Council to process and assess your application and, if successful, to process, pay and administer your grant. The Council may contact other funding agencies to verify grants requested from other funding agencies in support of your project.

If your application is successful, the Council may disclose the following information to Arts Queensland:

- the information you provide in your grant application
- the amount of funding you receive
- the information you provide in your outcome report; and
- text and images relating to your funded activity

The information may be used by the Council or Arts Queensland for reporting purposes, training, systems testing and process improvement. The information may be anonymised and used for statistical purposes.

The information may be used by the Council or Arts Queensland for the promotion of RADF or the promotion of funding outcomes for arts and cultural development in Queensland. For this purpose, the information and your contact details may be provided to Queensland Government Members of Parliament, the media and other agencies who may contact you directly. The Council and Arts Queensland may also publish the information in their Annual Reports or on their websites.

The Council and Arts Queensland treat all personal information in accordance with the Information Privacy Act 2009.

The provisions of the Right to Information Act 2009 apply to documents in the possession of the Council or Arts Queensland.

ELIGIBILITY CHECKLIST FOR PROFESSIONAL AND EMERGING ARTISTS

A separate Eligibility Checklist must be completed by each artist who will be paid salaries, fees or allowances from the RADF grant. Please make copies of this Checklist as required or download a copy from the Charters Towers Regional Council Website www.charterstowers.qld.gov.au.

The purpose of the RADF Program is to support professional and emerging professional artists and artworkers to practise excellent art for and with communities for mutual development.

This checklist has been developed to ensure that the status of artists as 'professional' and 'emerging professional' is clearly identified. Your responses to the questions below determine your status as an artist in regard to the RADF Program.

You need to tick any three or more of the artistic merits below to qualify as an artist with a professional or emerging professional status.

If you cannot select a minimum of three of the artistic merits, you do not meet the eligibility requirements as a professional or emerging artist who can be funded by the RADF program. In this case please contact your local RADF Liaison Officer to discuss alternative funding sources to support your arts activity/project.

Artist/Artworker Name: _____

- I have an Australian Business Number (ABN)
- OR I have provided a completed 'Statement by a Supplier' Form from the Australian Taxation Office

Please tick the following artistic merits that apply to you:

- I have professional arts and/or cultural qualifications
- I have devoted significant time to arts practice.
- I have been recognised as a professional by peers.
- I have held public exhibitions or given public performances (not as part of a competition).
- I have work held in public collections.
- I have won important national and/or international prizes or awards.
- I have held public discussions and/or have had articles written about my work.
- I have been employed based on art skills and/or earning income from sales of art work.
- I am an artist whose artistic or cultural knowledge has been recognised as professional by peers or the cultural community.
- I am an artist whose artistic or cultural knowledge has developed through oral traditions.
- I am a member of a professional association (or associations) as a professional artist.
